Our Vision

Commercial Creation

Lights, cameras, action! Think you can make a better ad than the big brands? Find out with Commercial Creation, a fast-paced, high-pressure foray into the world of advertising.

The brief is simple. Get your producer's hat on and create a TV commercial that's catchy, memorable and unique. The budget's tight, the materials and props are limited and the time scales short.

We can tailor commercial ideas to fit your brand, or deliver classic briefs designed to stretch the teams' creative abilities to the limit. They'll have to work fast too - our TV taskmasters want a complete campaign delivered to super-tight deadlines.

Will your director be able to handle the creative responsibility? Which team members are best suited to starring roles, and who's better behind the scenes? One thing's for sure, without tight planning and negotiation skills, there'll be nothing to show at the end of the shoot.

When time is called, it's cameras down and lights off. Have you done enough to satisfy our panel of TV moguls? They hate lateness and overspending, and love creativity, budgeting and time management.

There are gongs up for grabs at the awards ceremony, so get those acceptance speeches ready. A selected few teams will get their opportunity to show off their adverts at the end of the event!

Commercial Creation

Please ensure there is adequate, convenient parking with direct access to the activity area. Each team needs a separate area in which to film their TV commercial. A syndicate room is also required, with 4 x 6ft tables (with tablecloths) for the wardrobe department. Our team will need access to the activity rooms 2 hours prior to the start of the event.
