Our Vision

Haka Event

Stick out those tongues, stamp those feet, and roar like a true warrior!

The legendary dance of the Maori, made famous by the New Zealand All Blacks, is the grand daddy of all team building activities. You can't beat Haka for raw power, passion and majesty. This ancient tribal dance will get teams fired up, big time.

Haka is all about uniting one tribe in a massive show of strength. It never fails to unlock a deep sense of connection and communication, as teams move and vocalise in a fearsome unit! Confidence will rise. Trust will build. And adrenaline levels will skyrocket when the whole room moves as one, forgetting suits and smartphones as they come together in the most primal gathering of all.

Haka Event

Delegates will be gripped from the word go. Once everyone has arrived, there will be an almighty tribal roar to immediately grab everyone's attention! All eyes will be on our warrior leader as they dominate the room with the captivating moves and calls that make the Haka dance so powerful and memorable.

Delegates will then learn the Haka within their teams and prepare for an added competitive twist. Each team will perform their own take on the Haka with a dance-off against opposing teams in the penultimate part of the event. Hands, feet, legs, body, vocals and eyes are all used to mind-blowing effect.

This event is a totally interactive, full-on whirlwind of a workshop that explores the very essence of Haka and what it really means to be part of a tribe. There's more to this team building activity than just mastering moves. Delegates will get into the true spirit of Haka by designing their own tribal markings, which can be brought to life by the provided face paints.

The unforgettable experience ends with the whole room uniting in one explosive Haka performance.
