Our Vision

Its A Knockout

Unique, unforgettable and a total scream, It's A Knockout is team building at its biggest and bounciest. Battle it out in slapstick style to win school sports day games with a twist. We're talking giant costumes, huge inflatables, soaking wet slides, wacky relay races with enough foam to fill a bubble factory.

You could be scrambling up a slippery summit one minute and wobbling across a magic carpet the next. Plus it's not every day you get the chance to see the boss dressed as a giant penguin! Round up the troops, pick a pun-tastic team name and get stuck in.

We own the original inflatables, costumes and games from the beloved BBC series, which ruled teatime telly during the 1970's and 1980's. This is the authentic It's A Knockout experience - accept no substitute!

Slippery Summit

Because there 'ain't no mountain high enough' we have an inflatable substitute!

In an attempt to recreate Hannibal's exploits, you'll be required to make as many climbs of this mountain with the aid of the rope. Sounds easy, until you see the soap and water!

A game that will require as many of your team members to make as many trips over the inflatable in the allotted time.

Fe Fi Fo Fall

In this frantic event, participants climb inside a 10ft Giant costume complete with giant shoes and quite simply run across the crazy carpets operated by the opposing teams.

The giant's progress is hampered by the fact that the carpets are moving backwards and forwards making it difficult to stay on their feet! The first giant back full dressed and on their feet win maximum points!

Medieval Madness

The whole team form a human chain standing on pedestals - when the compere says Start - the anchor person collects the sponges from the large bucket of water and passes them down the line. The last person in the team must catapult wet sponges over the castle wall to their team mate who will squeeze all the remaining water into a container.

At the conclusion of the event, the measuring stick comes out and the team with the most water wins!!!

Hats On

This game consists of a giant inflatable hurdle course. The whole team compete across the course wearing a hat containing a cup full of water.

The more water they keep in the cup the more points the team get.

Once everyone has completed the course the team with the most water wins!

Penguin Pursuit

Don flappy-footed penguin suits and race for your life. Penguins who get caught by their opponents will have to sit and watch while the remaining combatants go toe-to-toe in Penguin Sumo.

Have you got what it takes to triumph in the Ring of Ice?

Bangers And Crash

Teams must mount the giant inflatable sausage links, make their way through the slalom and be the first to make it out of the frying pan!

A full team game that requires coordination and timing, it's not as easy as it seems! With plenty of hilarity and a good dose of team spirit, teams must try to make sausage meat out of the opposition.
