Our Vision

Movie Creation

Lights, camera, action! The budding Spielberg's in your team will get their chance to shine as they bring a classic movie scene to life. But making a film is about so much more than skills behind the lens. Teams will need to allocate talent in all the right places, if their epic is going to be a box-office smash!

Movie Creation

Teams receive an envelope containing details of the scene they're going to film. It's up to each crew to assign a director, head of props, actors, extras, and camera operators. But there's a catch. Everyone in the team has to appear in the scene at least once, even if it's only as a Hitchcock-style walk-on!

Can your teams work within a tight £100k budget to construct a movie masterpiece? Or will they blow too much money on props, and fail to finish their flick in time? With deadlines looming and accountants on your trail, you'll have to juggle all the elements that go into a breakout hit.

Unedited scenes are screened at the end of the event, and a final cut is sent to you once editing is finished. Get your clapperboards at the ready, and prepare those awards acceptance speeches!

Agenda

We recommend 3 hours for this team building activity.

Venue Requirements

We have a huge venue portfolio and will happily source a suitable site for you. If you'd rather find your own venue, please ensure there is adequate, convenient parking with direct access to the activity area.

Our team will need access to the activity rooms 2 hours prior to the start of the event. We require one main room for the briefing, and each team needs a separate area in which to film their scene. A syndicate room is also required, with 4x 6ft tables (with tablecloths) for the wardrobe department.
