Our Vision

Picasso Picture Show

Your guests will produce a faithful recreation of a Picasso picture. Split into small teams, each team will be responsible for painting a section of the main masterpiece. Easy, right? Not so fast! We've added conditions and twists to make things more challenging. Each team will have to decide who will communicate and who will paint. The communicators will have a few viewing periods to look at their section of the painting and write a narrative description of the piece. Then, in an act of precise communication, describe it to the painters for them to put onto canvas. Easier said than done when the clock's ticking and the pressure's on!

- The communicator can only view the original at allotted times
- The painters will not get to see the section they are painting
- The communicators will not be able to draw or touch the canvas in any way
- The event culminates with the final masterpiece being created before your eyes, as each team's sections are slowly built together on our giant easel
- If the communication is good enough and each team member plays their part, the result will be a faithful replica of the original. No two pictures are ever the same!

Hang the finished picture on a wall of your office to remind teams of what they learned from the experience 😊

Venue Requirements

Please ensure there is adequate, convenient parking with direct access to the room for setup.

The Picasso Picture Show requires a venue with a room large enough to accommodate one table per team. Table covers are supplied.

Ideally, the venue should have a small, separate viewing room for the event facilitators. However, viewing can take place in the corner of the main room if this isn't possible.
