Our Vision

Team Work Challenge

Our team tasks and games are designed to excite, enthrall and entertain with their unique blend of skill and humour. Heads will be scratched and limits will be tested.

While your teams are stretching their powers of collaboration and observation to the limit, they'll also be learning key skills like delegation, time management and playing to each other's strengths. But most importantly, you'll tackle recurring workplace issues in a fun and relaxed environment.

We'll deliver a bespoke Teamwork Challenges event with games tailored to suit your needs and also adhere to social distancing rules.

Need help? No problem! Feel free to contact me using the details above.

Human Sheep Herding

Blindfolded human sheep and non-verbal communication are thrown into the mix for one of our toughest communications challenges! Barking, whistles and bleating will be your only weapons against the ravenous wolves. Can you get the herd safely into the pen before they catch the scent and close in?

Tricky Triangles

Test your hippocampus and dive into a world of memory and trickery with this fantastic team building event.

Become true master minds with your team as you compete against the clock to reveal all 31 pieces of the puzzle in numerical order.

Pyramids

A real head-scratcher, Pyramids requires lateral thinking and collaboration. Your mission is to move seven large coloured blocks from area A to areas B or C. You can only move one block at a time, and stacking big blocks on top of small ones is against the rules!

Mission CCS

What could be worse than crossing a (simulated) minefield? Crossing it blindfolded! Team members making the journey will be completely disoriented and reliant on their fellow soldiers for directions. A cool head and clear communication will get the troops to safety.

Message in a Bottle

Retrieve clues hidden in three sealed bottles buried deep within termite-ridden tree stumps, using only teamwork, ingenuity and a limited supply of buckets and water! Clues mean treasure but you'll have to solve them to crack the master code and bag the booty.

Storm the Castle

Storm the castle walls with your own catapult, built using the equipment provided. Will you master the art of weapons-making quick enough to take the fort and capture its knights? Each medieval warrior holds a vital clue. The solution to their puzzle is a reward of precious crystals!
